FALL Announcement

By Crosby & Ennist, No. 2 & 4 Union avenue, Rondout, N. Y.
Now as the chilling winds of Autumn are advancing and all nature is beginning to assume the sombre garb we are reminded that we too much prepare clothing suitable to the approaching cold season, to shield ourselves from the wintry blasts which will soon be upon us. In order to meet the wants of Ladies, Misses and Children we have laid in an immense stock of JACKETS, WRAPS and CLOAKS which we offer at prices from 20 PER CENT to 35 PER CENT, less than former rates. As we did not carry any old stock over, our goods are new and desirable in quality and style. Made up in the latest fashion from the best selected goods. We guarantee perfect satisfaction in every particular. We are also prepared to meet all wants in Dress Goods, Underwear, Hosiery, Gloves and Domestic of all kinds.
We still adhere to "live and let live" prices and respectfully ask an inspection of our stock before buying elsewhere.

NOTES ON NEWS OF THE DAY.

VOTE up wages next Tuesday. Vote down free trade.

VOTE up the price of whiskey next Tuesday. Vote David B. Hill down.

VOTE down our second Tweed. The state never profited by electing a public robber to office.

VOTE to make the tax upon valuable and productive property less, by making the tax upon whiskey more. Vote for Warner Miller and high license.

GEN. R. D. MASSEY of Washington at Liscomb's Opera House to-night. Hear him.
He is a first class orator and an earnest and well informed Republican.

WILLIAMS COLLEGE keeps a free trade professor under pay. But the students took a vote the other day, and the result was: Harrison 174, Cleveland 47, Fisk 27.

At a Democratic parade in Mt. Vernon, Westchester county, last Thursday night, every liquor shop in town was illuminated with Chinese lanterns and decorated with bandanas.

JUDGE BARRETT decides that the polls in New York must be closed at 4 o'clock, and that no votes can be received after that hour.
This sadly interferes with Gov. Hill's plan for Democrats to "take possession of the polls" and "stay there until every one of their votes are counted."

MR. CLEVELAND does not yet give out the correspondence in the Sackville case for the American public to see. The reason is supposed to be that it would show the details of the bargain between himself and Salisbury, and expose the deceit attempted to be practiced upon the American people.

Gov. HILL says Harrison will go down to Harlem Bridge with 90,000 majority. This would be an increase over Blaine's majority, which was 62,190, of 45 per cent. Ulster county is going to multiply this increase about ten times. If all other counties do as well as Ulster is going to do, Harrison and Morton will carry the state by 100,000 majority.

A DISPATCH from London says "It is understood that the government will allow his [Sackville's] case to rest till after the Presidential election." He has been granted leave of absence with full pay, $85,000 a year, and will remain in the United States. The British government will not dismiss Minister Phelps, as such a step would undoubtedly cost Mr. Cleveland some English votes.

WILLIAM PURDY, a reputable citizen of Buffalo and a Democrat, testifies that while the great procession in honor of Garfield in that city was taking place, in 1880, he stood by the side of Grover Cleveland and heard him say: "I would like to see such a procession in favor of free trade, instead of protection."

It is ascertained that Jones of Binghamton has been a member of the Grand Army of the Republic just three weeks. He is a member "for revenue only." His first work after initiation was to prepare the circular in which he claimed credit for all the legislation that had been effected for the benefit of the order during the last three years.

CHAIRMAN DE. Murphy has ordered 1,000-000 fraudulent ballots for Democratic use.
Republicans who are not careful in scrutinizing their tickets are likely to be imposed upon. Every voter who has not done so should take time to make himself familiar with every name upon the Electoral ticket, as well as upon the State, County, Judiciary and Assembly. There is room for a large variety of "splices" in a million tickets.

The constitutional amendment to be voted upon next Tuesday is designed for the relief of the Court of Appeals, by constituting a second branch, composed of Supreme Court Judges. The ballots will be inscribed: "For the proposed amendment to section six of article six of the constitution," and "Against the proposed amendment to section six of article six of the constitution." Since a majority of all the votes cast is necessary for the adoption of the amendment, the man who votes any ticket but fails to vote upon the amendment, casts in effect a vote against it.

GROVER CLEVELAND comes out of his retreat long enough to deny the affidavit of Edwin C. Robbins, a reputable citizen of Buffalo, that he refused to accept the nomination for Mayor of Buffalo until all Catholic Irishmen had been removed from the ticket.
It should be noticed that he makes no affidavit to meet that of Mr. Robbins, neither does he cause the arrest of the latter for perjury.
It is one of those denials that, by their weakness, confirm the truth of the accusation.

WILLIAM RUMSEY has had eight years' experience upon the bench of the Supreme Court, and ranks among the ablest and most impartial Judges in the state. His opponent for the Court of Appeals, John Clinton Gray, has had a judicial experience of one year, during which the state has not discovered that he has any special ability. He is, moreover, a creature of David B. Hill, and the people of the third judicial district know by repeated experiences what that means.

GIVE Stephen V. R. Cruger a vote for Lieutenant Governor. He is a braver and better soldier than Jones. He served through the war; Jones went home after four months' service and remained in Massachusetts engaged in the safe duty of recruiting. Cruger has made a dignified canvass; he has not flooded the state with circulars setting forth his greatness or misrepresenting his true character. Jones has earned a vote of disgust.

WORKMEN of America! You are receiving the highest wages paid in the whole civilized world. The Democratic party proposes the experiment of free trade, on the pretense that it will open the markets of the world to our commerce. Do you want to try this experiment, which would put wages everywhere on a level? Do you want to trade off our great markets for the trade of nations whose common people are too poor to buy the very productions that are to us the common comforts of life? Think these questions over between to-night and Tuesday morning. They are not properly party questions; they are questions that go right down into the pocket of every one of you.

Terrific Explosion in the Department of Avergrord, France—35 Bodies Recovered.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

NEW-YORK, Nov. 3.—A light rain has been falling most of the day and the streets are wet and muddy. The arrangements for the big Republican parade, however, were all completed and the march from Wall street up Broadway began at 10 o'clock.

AN IMPOSING PROCESSION.
The procession made an imposing appearance. Thousands came out under the weeping skies to hear the music and see the men.
The Republicans cheered until they were hoarse. Among the numerous banners and placarded standards borne aloft by the moving thousands were legends like these: "Down with the Bandanna Free Trade!" "Tammany Bosses to the Rear," "The Soldiers' Candidate," "Was Ist Los Mit Ehrhardt," "Down With Political Bosses."

THE COLUMBIA BOYS.
The Columbia boys were out in large numbers and turned themselves loose with enthusiasm in their march up Broadway.

THE DRY GOODS MEN.
The dry goods men shouted:
"Grover, Grover take a test!
Your nation's cooked by Sackville-West.
Stephen Grover, what a mess You have made of Sackville-West."

THE LINE OF MARCH.
The line of march was from William street, up Wall to Broadway, to Waverly place, thru to Fifth avenue, up Fifth avenue and past the reviewing stands in Madison Square.

50,000 MEN IN LINE.

It is estimated that 50,000 men were in line.
A sea of banners was displayed along Broadway, and many private houses up-town were handsomely decorated. There was no lack of music in the line, although the majority of the bands came from out of town, the Democrats having previously engaged nearly all of the City bands.

LONGSHOREMEN ETC., IN LINE.

The Longshoremen's Harrison and Morton Club headed the procession. Some of the other organizations in line were the veterans of 1840, Bankers' and Brokers' Harrison and Morton Club, Consolidated Exchange Club, Produce and Maritime Exchange Clubs, Custom House brokers, Cotton and Coffee Exchange Clubs, the Bowling Green Harrison and Morton Club, the coast traders, Lawyers' Club, insurance men, Jewellers' Harrison and Morton Club, Hide and Leather Club, boot and shoe trade, hardware and metal trades, West Side merchants, carpet trades, railway and steamship men, Dry Goods Harrison and Morton Club, umbrella trades, wholesale milliners, gas fixtures employes, wholesale druggists, Crockery and Glassware Men's Club, East Side business men, Columbia College men, Newtown Bank Clerks' Association, Harlem Business Men's Association, New-York University students and dental students.

VETERANS OF 1840.
The veterans of 1840 who were too aged to walk all the distance, joined the procession at Fifth avenue and Fourteenth street.

THE STEARS AND STRIPES.
The American flag carried in the second division is the Old Regimental flag of General John T. Loockman, which waved over the blood-stained field of Gettysburg. Color Sergeant Ralph T. Marling, who was wounded at Gettysburg, carried the standard to day. Grand Marshal Mitchell ordered the clubs to stop the bands from playing while passing the New York City where Mrs. James G. Blaine, Jr., is seriously ill.

REVIEWED BY STATESMEN.
Levi P. Morton, Warner Miller, S. V. R.
Cruger, Joel B. Ehrhardt, the County candidates and members of the National, State and County Republican Committees reviewed the parade. Mr. Blaine reviewed the procession from the Fifth Avenue Hotel.

THE RAIN CEASES.

At 2:30 o'clock the rain ceased.

ALBANY, N. Y., Nov. 3.—A proclamation as follows:

By virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the State of New-York, I designate Thursday, the 29th day of November as a Day of Thanksgiving. It is right that we should be thankful to the Father of the earth, and that we should praise His name for the benefits we have received. By His favor we have continued a united, contented and free people, and within the borders of our State we have been especially blessed with health and prosperity in the year that is ending. On the day of Thanksgiving, in family reunions, let all hearts and voices join in songs of rejoicing for the abundant national and personal blessings which God has bestowed upon us, and as we praise God with our lips, let us not forget to serve Him by generously ministering unto such of our neighbors as have need of food and raiment, and by charitably considering those who in any part of our land have been severely injured. Most every member of the Imperial suite received contusions. Twenty-

NOTES ON NEWS OF THE DAY.

VOTE UP WAGES NEXT TUESDAY. Vote down free trade.

VOTE UP THE PRICE OF WHISKY NEXT TUESDAY. Vote David B. Hill down.

VOTE DOWN OUR SECOND TWEED. The state never profited by electing a public robber to office.

VOTE TO MAKE THE TAX UPON VALUABLE AND PRODUCTIVE PROPERTY LESS, BY MAKING THE TAX UPON WHISKY MORE. Vote for Warner Miller and high license.

GEN. R. D. MASSEY of Washington at Liscomb's Opera House to-night. Hear him. He is a first class orator and an earnest and well informed Republican.

WILLIAMS COLLEGE keeps a free trade professor under pay. But the students took a vote the other day, and the result was: Harrison 174, Cleveland 47, Fisk 27.

AT A Democratic parade in Mt. Vernon, Westchester county, last Thursday night, every liquor shop in town was illuminated with Chinese lanterns and decorated with bannanas.

JUDGE BARRETT decides that the polls in New York must be closed at 4 o'clock, and that no votes can be received after that hour. This sadly interferes with Gov. Hill's plan for Democrats to "take possession of the polls" and "stay there until every one of their votes are counted."

MR. CLEVELAND does not yet give out the correspondence in the Sackville case for the American public to see. The reason is supposed to be that it would show the details of the bargain between himself and Salisbury, and expose the deceit attempted to be practiced upon the American people.

GOV. HILL says Harrison will go down to Harlem Bridge with 90,000 majority. This would be an increase over Blaine's majority, which was 62,100, of 45 per cent. Ulster county is going to multiply this increase about ten times. If all other counties do as well as Ulster is going to do, Harrison and Morton will carry the state by 100,000 majority.

A DISPATCH from London says "it is understood that the government will allow his [Sackville's] case to rest till after the Presidential election." He has been granted leave of absence with full pay, $85,000 a year, and will remain in the United States. The British government will not dismiss Minister Phelps, as such a step would undoubtedly cost Mr. Cleveland some English votes.

WILLIAM PURDY, a reputable citizen of Buffalo and a Democrat, testifies that while the great procession in honor of Garfield in that city was taking place, in 1880, he stood by the side of Grover Cleveland and heard him say: "I would like to see such a procession in favor of free trade, instead of protection."

It is ascertained that Jones of Binghamton has been a member of the Grand Army of the Republic just three weeks. He is a member "for revenue only." His first work after initiation was to prepare the circular in which he claimed credit for all the legislation that had been effected for the benefit of the order during the last three years.

CHAIRMAN Ed. Murphy has ordered 1,000,000 fraudulent ballots for Democratic use. Republicans who are not careful in scrutinizing their tickets are likely to be imposed upon. Every voter who has not done so should take time to make himself familiar with every name upon the Electoral ticket, as well as upon the State, County, Judiciary and Assembly. There is room for a large variety of "spills" in a million tickets.

The constitutional amendment to be voted upon next Tuesday is designed for the relief of the Court of Appeals, by constituting a second branch, composed of Supreme Court Judges. The ballots will be inscribed: "For the proposed amendment to section six of article six of the constitution," and "Against the proposed amendment to section six of article six of the constitution." Since a majority of all the votes cast is necessary for the adoption of the amendment, the man who votes any ticket but fails to vote upon the amendment, casts in effect a vote against it.

GROVER CLEVELAND comes out of his retreat long enough to deny the affidavit of Edwin C. Robbins, a reputable citizen of Buffalo, that he refused to accept the nomination for Mayor of Buffalo until all Catholic Irishmen had been removed from the ticket. It should be noticed that he makes no affidavit to meet that of Mr. Robbins, neither does he cause the arrest of the latter for perjury. It is one of those denials that, by their weakness, confirm the truth of the accusation.

WILLIAM RUMSEY has had eight years' experience upon the bench of the Supreme Court, and ranks among the ablest and most impartial judges in the state. His opponent for the Court of Appeals, John Clinton Gray, has had a judicial experience of one year, during which the state has not discovered that he has any special ability. He is, moreover, a creature of David B. Hill, and the people of the third judicial district know by repeated experiences what that means.

GIVE Stephen V. R. Cruger a vote for Lieutenant Governor. He was a braver and better soldier than Jones. He served through the war; Jones went home after four months' service and remained in Massachusetts engaged in the safe duty of recruiting. Cruger has made a dignified canvass; he has not flooded the state with circulars setting forth his greatness or misrepresenting his true character. Jones has earned a vote of disgust.

WORKINGMEN of America! You are receiving the highest wages paid in the whole civilized world. The Democratic party proposes the experiment of free trade, on the pretense that it will open the markets of the world to our commerce. Do you want to try this experiment, which would put wages everywhere on a level? Do you want to trade off our great markets for the trade of nations whose common people are too poor to buy the very productions that are to us the common comforts of life? Think these questions over before you vote to-night and Tuesday morning. They are not properly party questions; they are questions that go right down into the pocket of every one of you.

AN IMPOSING PROCESSION.

The procession made an imposing appearance. Thousands came out under the waving flags to hear the music and see the men. The Republicans cheered until they were hoarse. Among the numerous banners and placards borne aloft by the moving thousands were legends like these: "Down with the Bandanna Free Trade," "Tammany Bosses to the Rear," "The Soldiers' Candidate," "Was Ist Los Mit Ehrhardt," "Down With Political Bosses."

THE COLUMBIA BOYS.

The Columbia boys were out in large numbers and turned themselves loose with enthusiasm in their march up Broadway.

There was no lack of music in the line, although the majority of the bands came from out of town, the Democrats having previously engaged nearly all of the City bands.

The Longshoremen's Harrison and Morton Club headed the procession. VETERANS OF 1840.

The veterans of 1840 who were too aged to walk the distance, joined the procession at Fifth-avenue and Fourteenth-street.

THE STARS AND STRIPES.

The American flag carried in the second division is the Old Regimental flag of General John T. Lockman, which waved over the blood-stained field of Gettysburg. The flag was carried by a young man who was wounded at Gettysburg, carried the standard to-day. Grand Marshal Mitchell ordered the clubs to stop the bands from playing while passing the New-York Hotel, where Mrs. James G. Blaine, Jr., is seriously ill.

REVIEWED BY STATESMEN.

Levi P. Morton, Warner Miller, S. V. R. Cruger, Joel B. Ehrhardt, the County candidates and members of the National, State and County Republican Committees reviewed the parade. Mr. Blaine reviewed the procession from the Fifth-Avenue Hotel.

THE RAIN CEASES.

At 2:30 o'clock the rain ceased.

By virtue of the power vested in me as Governor of the State of New York, I designate Thursday, the 29th day of November, as a Day of Thanksgiving. It is right that we should be thankful to the father of the Nations of the earth, and that we should praise His name for the benefits we have received. By His favor we have continued a united, contented and free people, and within the borders of our State we have been especially blessed with health and prosperity in the year that is ending. On the day of Thanksgiving, in accustomed places of worship, and in family reunions, let all hearts and voices join in songs of rejoicing, for which we are indeed very thankful. Some of the collectors that had our books have been unable to receive what was promised on their books on account of sickness and other causes, but we hope the friends will respond to their names for a good cause when the books are again presented by the collectors.
